

An introduction to the
TEXAS UNITES FOR ANIMALS CONFERENCE
APRIL 27-29, 2019

ABOUT US

At the annual Texas Unites for Animals Conference, animal welfare professionals from across the state of Texas and the surrounding region come together for quality professional development and networking opportunities. The Texas Unites for Animals Conference is the heart of Texas Unites' mission to provide a system of information, support and guidance by:

- Enhancing professionalism in the animal welfare industry
- Strengthening the human companion animal bond
- Promoting respect and compassion for all life

DATES / LOCATION

April 27-29, 2019 (exhibitor set-up on April 26, 2019)

Renaissance Austin Hotel, 9721 Arboretum Boulevard, Austin, Texas 78759

AUDIENCE

Our audience is the animal care & control, sheltering and rescue community. In 2018, our 600+ attendees came from all aspects of animal welfare, including animal control officers, shelter and operations managers, rescue volunteers, non-profit board members, private shelter staff, clinic staff, veterinarians and others in the fields of animal sheltering, care and control. Attendees largely come from Texas and the surrounding states, but over the years we have welcomed guests representing as many as 28 states and Canada!

MARKETING EXPOSURE

A variety of marketing opportunities are available for our partnering organizations including:

- web links, social media posts, and email blasts
- logo recognition on website, in registration brochure, conference program, and on signage at event
- branded promotional items
- product sales, raffles, and game/contest participation in exhibit hall
- participant list (pre and post conference) with address & email
